MANHEIM LOCATIONS RECEIVE
WELLS FARGO AUTO FINANCE AWARDS
Two Auctions Honored for Second Consecutive Year

ATLANTA – Two Manheim auction locations were honored by Wells Fargo Auto Finance at their second annual auction awards reception held May 3 in Atlanta, GA.

Nashville Auto Auction in Nashville, Tenn., and Ohio Auto Auction in Grove City, Ohio, were recognized by Wells Fargo Auto Finance for offering customers the most consistent and highest levels of service in their respective regions in 2006.

The awards are presented to four separate auction regions and are based on retention, online sales, condition report accuracy and quality of reconditioning. Wells Fargo also conducts an internal survey to determine which auctions have the best level of communication.

“Manheim is committed to delivering excellent customer service, and we are honored that Wells Fargo Auto Finance recognizes that commitment from our team,” said Nick Peluso, Manheim senior vice president, customer relations and strategies. “We value the relationship we have with Wells Fargo Auto Finance and look forward to continuing to offer the type of consistent, quality service that our customers value.”

“We value our relationships with our auctions, and we consider them a partner in the remarketing process,” said Howard Segal, Wells Fargo Auto Finance vice president of remarketing. “This year’s winners provided the greatest and most consistent levels of service. We look forward to recognizing the efforts of top-performing auctions for many years to come.”
