MANHEIM'S GATEWAY AUTO AUCTION
EXPANDS OFFERINGS WITH HEAVY TRUCK AND EQUIPMENT SALE

ATLANTA – Manheim has expanded the number of heavy truck and equipment sales to 12 with the addition of Gateway Auto Auction in Granite City, Ill., which will host its next heavy truck and equipment sale Friday, June 8, at 10 a.m.

Manheim's heavy truck and equipment auctions feature heavy trucks classified as Class 3 - 8 with a GVW of 10,000# - 30,000# and includes tractor-trailers, box vans and vehicle transporters. The heavy equipment offerings include construction equipment such as bulldozers and pavers, and agricultural equipment such as combines and tractors. Manheim has also sold oil rigs, including tankers, and a wide variety of oil rig tools, equipment and parts.

“The demand for heavy trucks and equipment continues to grow,” said Karen Braddy, director of heavy trucks, highline and specialty for Manheim. “Meeting our customers' needs is our top priority, and expanding our heavy truck and equipment locations is a prime example of Manheim's dedication to customer satisfaction.”

Gateway Auto Auction will host heavy truck and equipment sales on the second Friday of each month. Sales will be available via Manheim Simulcast – an Internet-based system that allows dealers to buy and sell vehicles online that are moving through live auction lanes.

“The demand for this sale is high in our region because the closest Manheim heavy truck and equipment sale is 300 miles away in Ft. Wayne, Ind.,” said Heather Austin, Gateway Auto Auction marketing manager. “Southern Illinois has a strong farming industry, and we are excited to be able to offer our customers the vehicles and equipment they need to get their jobs done.”
