MANHEIM EXECUTIVE HONORED BY WOMEN'S AUTOMOTIVE ASSOCIATION
Pam Mabry-Cadigan Receives Award at NADA Conference

ATLANTA – Manheim's vice president of inspection operations, Pam Mabry-Cadigan, received the Women's Automotive Association International Spirit of Leadership Award at the NADA conference in San Francisco.

Mabry-Cadigan was one of five women honored by WAAI for their outstanding leadership abilities and success in the automotive industry.

"I want to congratulate Pam and the other award recipients for their impact on and commitment to the automotive industry," said Dean Eisner, Manheim president and CEO. "Pam is a dynamic leader, an inspiration to her team, and a tremendous asset to our company and our customers. We are very proud of her."

Mabry-Cadigan set the industry standard for quality and consistent inspection processes with her work on Manheim's vehicle inspection business. She and her team have successfully launched a standardized inspection process and worked to improve Manheim's vehicle inspectors' skills through certifications, training and quality assurance initiatives.

About Manheim

Manheim is the world's leading provider of vehicle remarketing services. Through its wholesale operating locations and array of technology products, Manheim impacts every stage of a used vehicle's life cycle, helping commercial sellers and automobile dealers realize the full value of their vehicles.

The company's operating location services include reconditioning, certification, inspections, dealer financing, transport, title management and marshaling, among others. Manheim is also the leader in vehicle remarketing technology, using its online tools to connect buyers and sellers around the globe to the world's largest, most comprehensive wholesale marketplace. In 2007, Manheim handled nearly 10 million used vehicles, facilitating transactions representing more than $59 billion in value.

Manheim's subsidiary companies provide value-added remarketing products and services, including paintless dent removal (Dent Wizard), Auto Body Repair, and salvage vehicle remarketing (Total Resource Auctions).

Manheim is a subsidiary of Atlanta-based Cox Enterprises Inc., one of the nation's leading media companies and providers of automotive services.
